NAME AND SURNAME	NOBUMOTO SUZUKI
COUNTRY	JAPAN
ORGANISATION	NHK – NIPPON HOSO KYOKAI
TITLE	SENIOR PRODUCER – CURRENT AFFAIRS PROGRAMS
JURY	TV DOCUMENTARY

Nobumoto Suzuki joined NHK in 1996 as a TV director. With a focus on current affairs, he directed and produced numerous documentaries many of which have been aired on NHK's Flagship documentary slot. His international work encompasses subjects such as the impact of global warming in the Himalayas, the situation in the Pamir region of Central Asia after the 9/11 terror attacks, and the impact of the 2008 financial crisis on the United Kingdom and South Africa. In Japan, he made a documentary about the families of civilian sailors killed in wartime, and the Aum cult members who were sentenced to death for their role in indiscriminate killings. Suzuki communicated with the former Aum cultists while they were on death row.

Since 2014, Suzuki is the Senior Producer of News Features Production Center which is NHK's central production division for major current affairs programs.
